NUSD Holding Community Meetings for Solar Projects

Novato, CA – The Novato Unified School District announced today that they will be holding two meetings to get community comments and feedback regarding the proposed solar panel placements for the solar photovoltaic project at district schools. Each meeting will focus on six schools. Those meetings are:

January 14, 2016, 6-8 pm, San Marin High School Library

Proposed solar projects for the following schools will be reviewed: San Marin, Sinaloa, Pleasant Valley, Lu Sutton, San Ramon and Olive

January 19, 2016, 6-8 pm, Novato High School Library

Proposed solar projects for the following schools will be reviewed: Novato High, San Jose, Rancho, Lynwood, Loma Verde and Hamilton

In addition, detailed information on the proposed solar panel placements can be found on the Solar Energy webpage on the NUSD website at <http://bit.ly/1TNTzKi>.

If unable to attend these meetings, community members can also submit comments via the Solar Energy webpage (<http://bit.ly/1TNTzKi>), email to ccannon@nUSD.org, or leave a message at 415 493-4222.
