Where do they all come from?
They're in contradiction
How will you choose just one?

PERSEVERANCE

*The tortoise was not very fast,
Everyone expected him to be the last,
Being slow and steady he won the race,
Let the hare stood aside with bad grace.*

*You may be the hare,
Don't procrastinate unless you dare,
You may be the tortoise,
Don't care about other's tease.*

*We may not be outstanding,
But we should always feel satisfying,
If we forget about difficulties,
Then we will see opportunities.*

You can be fast,
if you try your best!
